

Benefit Concert for Benjamin Franklin House 18th Century Music and Beyond

Monday, 17 May 2010 7.45pm

LOCATION: Steiner Theatre, Regent's Park, London NW1 6XT

Tickets: £10

Talented young soprano Judith Charron will be joined by Paul Vialard on cello, and Andrew Robinson on piano, for an evening of 18th century music and more, including songs by Handel, Verdi, and Debussy, as well as Gluck and Donizetti, who both composed for Franklin's ingenious glass armonica

In the heart of London, just steps from famed Trafalgar Square, is Benjamin Franklin House, the world's only remaining Franklin home. For nearly sixteen years between 1757 and 1775, Dr Benjamin Franklin - scientist, diplomat, philosopher, inventor, Founding Father of the United States and more - lived behind its doors. Benjamin Franklin House, built circa 1730, is open to the public as a dynamic museum and educational facility every day except Tuesday, our schools day.
